

Cal-IPC Practitioner Workshop

CSU East Bay, Concord Center, November 15, 2024

Photo: Jesse Cantley

Join us for a full day of learning!

Connect with colleagues and learn about invasive plants from local experts. We encourage people of all career levels and involvement to attend.

November 15, 2024, 9:00 am – 4:00 pm

CSU East Bay, Concord Center 4700 Ygnacio Valley Rd, Concord

$75 – Member, $100 – Non-Member, Free – Student Member, $25 – Student Non-Member
$25 – Added fee for DPR credits (5 hours of “other” credits available for full day attendance)
Lunch provided. Registration closes November 7.

FEATURING:

- Principles of invasive plant management
- Regional overview of invasive plants
- Tools and techniques/Stump the stewards
- Restoration practices
- Volunteer programs
- Equity in field safety
- Controlling difficult invasives (Arundo, perennial pepperweed, tree of heaven)
- Using WeedCUT and other online resources
- Networking opportunities

INSTRUCTORS FROM:

Avila & Associates, Cal-IPC, California State Parks, Civicorps, Contra Costa County RCD, CSU East Bay, East Bay Regional Park District, Friends of San Ramon Creek, National Park Service, River Partners, UC Davis, UC Cooperative Extension, USDA, Yolo RCD

Protecting California's environment and economy from invasive plants

www.cal-ipc.org/workshops